

LCSW or LAMSW licensure process

After getting licensed as a LMSW, register supervision by sending in:

1. Contract for supervision;
2. Registration of supervision form;
3. Employment verification;
4. $25 fee
5. Copy of supervisor's certificate for 16 hour training course

A letter of approval will be sent with the start date for that setting.

6. Upon completion of 3,000 hours under supervision in at least 24–48 months, application for license may be submitted. Download form from website at www.pr.mo.gov/socialworkers-forms.asp
7. Send in application for license with fee. Follow instructions for fingerprinting. Fingerprint results are good for 1 year.
8. Supervisor must submit attestation form.
9. After receipt of required documents, this office will send a letter approving the applicant to take the exam.
10. Register for and pass exam.

Remain under supervision until license is issued.
